

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Foreword	9
Chapter 1: Introduction	11
1.1 African Childhood Disability Studies	12
1.2 Spina bifida	14
1.3 Study setting	17
1.4 Study Questions	21
1.5 Methods	22
Chapter 2: Knowledge, Attitudes, and Practices	33
2.1 Community Knowledge, Beliefs, Attitudes, and Practices Towards Children with Spina Bifida and Hydrocephalus in Uganda	34
Chapter 3: Health and Rehabilitative Services	55
3.1 Prevention of spina bifida: folic acid intake during pregnancy in northern Uganda	56
3.2 Interdisciplinary care for children with spina bifida in East and Southern Africa	66
Chapter 4: Social inclusion and belonging	79
4.1 'I like to play with my friends': children with spina bifida and belonging in Uganda	80
4.2 Cognitive abilities of pre-primary and primary school children with spina bifida in Uganda	105
4.3 Teacher's and parent's perspectives on inclusive education for children with spina bifida in Uganda	127

Chapter 5: Family relationships and care 143

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 5.1 | Parental stress and support of parents of children with spina bifida in Uganda | 144 |
| 5.2 | Family relationships, dependency and care: perspectives of children with spina bifida in Uganda | 166 |

Chapter 6: Discussion 185

- | | | |
|-----|-----------------------------------|-----|
| 6.1 | Main findings | 186 |
| 6.2 | Limitations | 193 |
| 6.3 | Implications for interventions | 194 |
| 6.4 | Implications for further research | 196 |